

Media, sure! But secure.

Your application

The initiative Teachtoday wants to reward your work and commitment in the fields of safe media use and learning with digital media!

Email your completed and detailed application until 20 September 2015.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact Insa Gronewold at our project office under +49 30 2938 1680 or via email at teachtoday@helliwood.de.

Personal information

Name of the institution

Surname, First name

Job title

Address

Email address

Telephone number

Website

Information on the institution

Funding organisation

Legal form

Number of employees

Number of children

Age of children

Main focus of the institution

The following principle
guides our educational work

Your project

What was your project called?

Please give a brief description of your proposed project (main activities, timings, duration).

Please assign your project to one of the two categories of the competition (tick off box)

Safe media use

Learning with digital media

What technical equipment/media did you use for your project?

How old were the children you worked with (grade, age etc.)?

Where there any project partners and if so, who were they?

What were the goals of your project?

Please answer these additional questions.

How would you describe the success of your project? Are there any experiences you would like to share? Did you face any difficulties during the project and if so, how did you solve them? How does the project support safe media use/learning with digital media? Will the project be continued or will there be other projects on safe media use and/or learning with digital media? Can the project be adapted by others and if so, are there any materials for that?

Statement

Why should your project win?

Documentation

Please submit photos, videos, paintings, quotes from the children and other documentation material together with this form.

We hereby apply for the competition „Media, sure! But secure. We give our consent to the publication of our application including the name of the institution for reporting purposes by Deutsche Telekom and Teachtoday. All decisions are final.

Submitting your application

Applications can be submitted via email or download link (using e.g. Dropbox, Yousendit or WeTransfer).

Place, Date

Please email your completed application to: teachtoday@helliwood.de.

Name