

A picture goes around the world

Tuesday, 7:00 AM:

Lara has a spontaneous idea:

12-year-old Lara takes a selfie: doing a duck face and still wearing her pyjamas. "Will Leon like this one?" she asks herself and, whoosh, she's already sent it to him.

Tuesday, 7:10 AM: This is going to be a great post!

Leon just got Lara's photo. "That's funny," he thinks, just the right thing for a Facebook post and a WhatsApp message to his sport group.

Tuesday, 7:40 AM: Mia forwards it...

Mia is in Leon's WhatsApp group from the sports club. She goes ahead and forwards Lara's picture on the school choir WhatsApp group. What'll they say about it...?

Tuesday, 09:50 AM: New messages on Whatsapp

Oh! Lara's got three new messages from the choir group. Huh? How did they get that picture? And what's so funny about it?

Tuesday, 12:20 PM: Facebook

Why is her picture on Facebook? It's got 26 likes and has been shared 54 times.
